Rebecca Martin and Timothy Bohannan say vows at Mineola Nature Preserve

Rebecca Martin of Hawkins and Timothy Bohannan of Alba were united in marriage May 14 at the Mineola Nature Preserve.

The groom's father Pastor Randy Bohannan officiated the double-ring ceremony. Music played was "From This Moment On" and "A Thousand Miles."

The bride is the daughter of Jimmy and Karen Martin of Hawkins. The groom is the son of Pastor Randy and Debbie Bohannan of Alba.

The bride selected a strapless gown of white organza, accented with beading around the bodice and the full-length of the gown, with corset lacing in the back. She wore a matching white taffeta jacket, crystal-edged veil and crystal-beaded band and and crystal necklace.

The maid of honor was Elizabeth Dollar of Golden. Bridesmaids were Rachel Dollar of Golden and Debbie Warren of Mineola. The flowergirl was Elle Frazier of Hawkins.

The best man was Brandon Bohannan of Alba, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Michael Bohannan of Golden and Randall Bohannan of Alba, brothers of the groom.

The ringbearers were brothers Mason and Brayden Bohannan of Alba, nephews of the groom.

At the guestbook was Ashley Bishop of Flowermound, cousin of the bride. The photographer was Joyce Bishop of Flowermound, cousin of the bride. A reception was held at Lakeview Dental Center in Mineola.

Serving at the bride's and groom's table were Jessica Bohannan of Golden, Amanda Bohannan of Alba, sisters-in-law of the bride and groom, and Stephanie Smith of Hawkins.

The couple honeymooned in Jefferson and will make their home in Alba.
